

Introducing Eyewall Armor™ Colonial Shutters

When it comes to protecting what matters most in your life – your family, your home and your business – you should demand the highest quality and most reliable protection you can find. When families and businesses look to protect their investments, they look to Town & Country Industries, the world's leading producer of hurricane shutters. With the introduction of Eyewall Armor™, Town & Country is proud to offer you a line of shutter designs that are convenient, easy-to-use and will provide years of secure, reliable protection against the roughest weather conditions, year-round.

All of our Eyewall Armor products have gone through rigorous research and development and testing to be the strongest and most durable hurricane products on the market. Eyewall Armor Colonials surpass both Florida Building code HVHZ and non-HVHZ requirements, which are some of the most rigid in the nation. They carry Florida Building Code HVHZ, non-HVHZ and Texas Department of Insurance approval

Practical, effective and convenient protection meet an aesthetically pleasing home addition with Eyewall Armor Colonial Shutters, which will enhance the appearance of your home while providing superior hurricane protection against high winds and flying debris. Their ease of use makes them an ideal choice for ground level and upper floor window openings. When they are open, they lend your home the decorative beauty of traditional shutters.

When durability, practicality and ease of operation are important to you, Eyewall Armor Colonial Shutters are a perfect choice. The shutters are made of top-quality components and hardware and are designed to deliver the utmost in storm protection and security. They can be operated easily by one person, and close neatly and quietly over windows to offer additional protection and privacy.

Make the smart choice when it comes to protecting what's important to you. With exceptional and reliable storm and security protection, Eyewall Armor Colonial Shutters deliver on all fronts. Protect your home from nature's wrath without sacrificing beauty with Eyewall Armor Colonial Shutters.

Eyewall Armor Colonial Shutters are neatly and durably hinged to provide optimum storm protection. They are ideal for larger openings, with multiple panels that easily fold out when closing.
